City Requests Input on New Website Design

On February 18th of this year Mayor Walt Maddox signed Executive Order 2010-06 establishing a committee to study and recommend a new city website. Through a collaborative effort of all city departments and the public, the Website Redesign Committee is looking for ideas that will make the new website more user friendly and consistent with contemporary technology and practices.

Let us know what you find useful in the current design or what you would like to see changed. Do you know of another website that offers great features? Tell us about it by writing to webmaster@tuscaloosa.com.
